CITY OF STONNINGTON

Proposed General Local Law (Overhanging Hedges) 1998

Notice is given that Stonnington City Council proposes to make General Local Law (Overhanging Hedges) Local Law 1998. The purpose of the proposed local law is to amend the General Local Law 1995 to remove provision for the issuing of a permit for a tree, hedge or plant to overhang a road at a height of less than two and a half metres, or to cause a danger to traffic.

EXISTING LOCAL LAW

Under clause 735 of the General Local Law 1995 "unless in accordance with a permit" an owner or occupier of premises must not allow, cause, permit or suffer:

- a tree, hedge or plant growing on the premises to overhang a road at a height of less than two and half metres; or
- a tree, hedge or plant to grow in such a manner that it causes a danger to traffic by preventing a clear view of any vehicle or traffic sign or signal.

In the local law "road" includes a footpath and a nature strip as well as other areas.

THE AMENDMENT

The proposed local law, if made, will remove the words "unless in accordance with a permit" from clause 735 of the General Local Law 1995. The effect of this amendment will be to remove the possibility for a permit to be issued under clause 735. When the amendment comes into effect, therefore, a person to whom clause 735 (as amended) applies will be guilty of an offence. The penalty for an offence under the General Local Law 1995 is an amount not exceeding 20 penalty units ($2,000) and, in the case of a continuing offence, a penalty not exceeding 2 penalty units ($200) for each day after conviction for an offence during which the contravention continues.

A copy of the proposed local law may be inspected at or obtained from the Council offices at Stonnington Council Service Centre (located on the corner of High Street and Glenferrie Road, Malvern) and Reception at the Prahran District Office (located on the corner of Chapel and Greville Streets, Prahran) between 9 am and 5 pm Monday to Friday.

Amendment L51

The City of Boroondara has prepared Amendment L51 to the Boroondara Planning Scheme.

The Amendment applies to Numbers 8, 10 and 12 Murdoch Street, 27, 31, 33 and 35 Fairmont Avenue, Camberwell and the Murdoch Street Reserve, Murdoch Street, Camberwell being the former Camberwell Nursery site.

The Amendment will provide that future planning permit applications (for subdivision, consolidation and the removal of reserve) which are in accordance with the incorporated plan will be exempt from the requirements for notice and appeal. The Amendment does not change the heritage status of the land.

In addition, the Amendment will include part of the reserve in a Potentially Contaminated Land Overlay, as an interim measure prior to the removal of any contaminated land.

Dated this 17 July 1998.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 64 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Beach House Fitness Centre Pty Ltd for exemption from sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide health and fitness centres catering for women only.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Adam Price for the applicant and for the reasons for decision given by the Tribunal on 17 July 1998, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide health and fitness centres catering for women only.

The exemption will apply only to: (1) the applicant's health and fitness centre at Edithvale; (2) the applicant's proposed health and fitness centre at Bengtleigh; and (3) to any other health and fitness centres that may be acquired or set up, and operated, by the applicant in the future, if the latter are centres in respect of which a like exemption from this Tribunal is then in place in respect of another person or are centres which have not in the previous six months operated as a fitness centre or a like business.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 68 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Peter Rogers on behalf of Wodonga South Primary School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male integration aid.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male integration aid.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The integration aid will assist teachers to help with behavioural problems which a particular male student may have.
- The male integration aid will be a positive influence on that students commencement at the school, and will act as a father figure and role model and will assist in personal areas, such as hygiene.
- The Wodonga South Primary School has no male teachers in the junior school.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male integration aid. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 July 2001.

Application No. 69 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Meg Henham on behalf of Family Mediation Centre. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male or female mediator, where required to maintain a gender balance.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male or female mediator, where required to maintain a gender balance.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Noble Park Family Mediation Centre receives funding from the Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department to provide Family law mediation.
- Mediation is conducted between separating/separated couples in relation to property settlement and arrangements for children.

- It is the policy of the Family Mediation Centre to work in a co-mediation model having two mediators work with the disputing parties, one male and one female. This ensures a gender balance in their service delivery.
- Given that most of their clients are in the process of separating or have separated, it is crucial that in such high conflict situations, the clients view the Centre as unbiased as far as gender is concerned

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male or female mediator, where required to maintain a gender balance. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 July 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 71 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Janet Adamson on behalf of Doveton Heights Primary School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori Educator.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori Educator.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The position is shared between the Wooranna Park, Doveton North, Dandenong North, Doveton Heights & Eumemmerring Primary Schools where there are 11, 5, 6, 15 and 5 Koori students respectively. The request has been made on behalf of the panel consisting of Rhonda Charles, Koori Education Development Officer, Ringo Terrick, Local Aboriginal Consultative Group, Lynette Hume, Merit and Equity Panel representative and Janet Adamson, Principal of Doveton Heights Primary School.

- Federal funding for this position was established so Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders could be appointed as Educators to meet the specific cultural and educational needs of Koori students.
- Koori students need a strong Koori role model, which can be best met by another Koori. The teaching, understanding and relevance of Koori culture are better appreciated and transferred to students by a Koori.
- The role also involves home visits and encouraging Koori parents to work along side the school to assist students in their individual needs. A Koori Educator will be able to gain acceptance in the home situation and establish the relevant links between home and school.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori Educator. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 July 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 65 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Hepburn Shire Council. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ as many male respite/personal care workers as are necessary to provide a gender balance in its carer staff.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ as many male respite/personal care workers as are necessary to provide a gender balance in its carer staff.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Hepburn Shire Council provides respite/personal care to the frail, aged and disabled people throughout the Shire. There are presently 15 carers employed by the Shire and all are female.
- The duties of the respite carer for the disabled person(s) are monitoring medication when authorised; transportation to and from pre-school and school when parents are unavailable; undertaking routine household tasks in a relief capacity, at irregular intervals; supervising in undertaking personal care tasks; assisting to develop independent living skills, assistance with the application of aids, disability apparel e.g. calipers; assisting with exercise/rehabilitation programs, and transporting clients when requested.
- The duties of a personal carer are to assist the recipient with bathing, showering or sponging; dressing and undressing; shaving, hair care and grooming; nail care; mobility (in and out of bed) such as to sit up, to turn, to stand and walk, to sit, to transfer to commode, wheelchair, chair or vehicle; eating and drinking, including cooking and preparation of food and special diets; toileting, prescribed exercise or therapy programs; fitting and use of appliances such as splints and calipers or hoists; hearing aids and communication devices and monitoring self medication (reminding people to take their medicine).
- The support duties of a personal carer are to monitor living environment and recipient's general health; encourage and promote independence; maintain confidentiality; and report recipient's situation to Assessment

Officer/Care Co-ordinator. Other duties of a safety nature include monitoring and reporting hazards around the home, reporting any hygiene risks and applying safe lifting and transfer procedures.

- The Shire wishes to provide clients with the choice of either a male or female carer. The exemption is sought to reduce the current gender imbalance in carer staff and to cater for the sensitive nature of the position, and to enable the Shire to be able to fulfil a specific request of the client.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ male respite/personal care workers. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 July 2001.
