BAYSIDE CITY COUNCIL

Meeting Procedures Local Law No 1.

Notice is hereby given that Bayside City Council at its meeting held on 20 August, 2001 made a Local Law entitled – Local Law No. 1 – Meeting Procedures, which revokes the existing Local Law 1. – “Governance, Meeting Procedures & Common Seal” in its entirety and replaces it with a new Local Law No. 1 titled “Meeting Procedures”.

The purpose of this Local Law is to:

- a) to provide a mechanism to facilitate the good government of the Municipal District of the City of Bayside through its formal meeting procedure to ensure effective and efficient Council decisions are made in a manner which acknowledges the role of local government within the Australian system of government;
- b) to promote and encourage community participation in local government by providing mechanisms for the Council to ascertain the community’s views and expectations;
- c) to regulate and control the election of Mayor and the Chairman of any Committees;

- d) to regulate and control the procedures governing the conduct of meetings including:
 1. the notice required for meetings;
 2. the keeping of minutes.
- e) to regulate and control the use of Council’s Seal;
- f) to provide for the administration of the Council’s powers and functions;
- g) to provide generally for the peace, order and good government of the Municipal District.
- h) revoke Council’s Governance, Meeting Procedure and Common Seal Local Law No. 1 made in March 2000.

The general purport of the Local Law is to:

- establish a law which will govern order of business, rules of debate, meeting procedure, public access and conduct of meetings;
- regulate the use and control of Council’s common seal, and create an offence for a person using the common seal without authority or using a replica of the common seal without authority;
- regulate the procedure for the election of the Mayor;
- regulate the procedure of “Public Question Time” at Ordinary Meetings of Council;
- regulate the time limit of people making a submission to Council;
- regulate the availability of agenda papers to members of the public prior to meetings;
- regulate the procedure for amending a Notice of Motion;
- regulate the procedure for petitioners speaking to petitions;
- regulate the hearing of submissions at Committee Meetings of Council only;
- allow Council to suspend Standing Orders for a maximum period of 30 minutes;
- regulate the procedure to ensure that no discussion prior to a motion being moved;
- regulate the procedure for Points of Order;
- create an offence for a person who interrupts a meeting or behaves in an unruly manner and who fails to come to order when called to do so; and

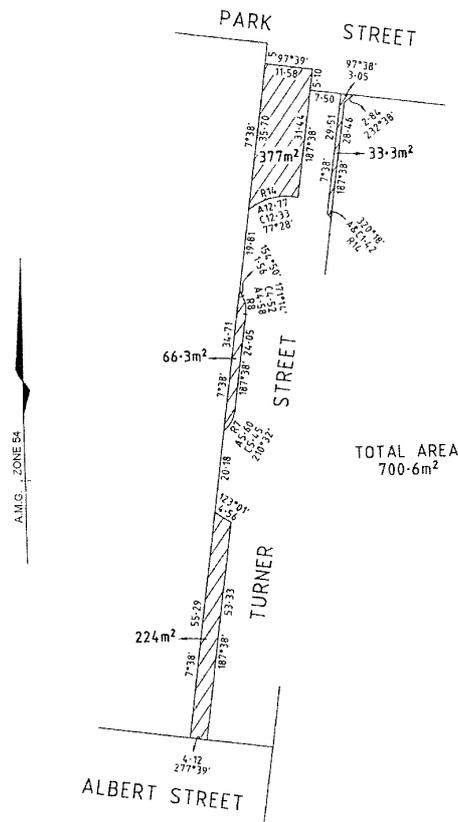

- revoke the existing Local Law No. 1 – Governance, Meeting Procedures and Common Seal made in March 2000 in its entirety;

Copies of the Local Law may be inspected at or obtained from the Corporate Centre, Royal Avenue, Sandringham. This Local Law will come into operation on Thursday 23 August 2001.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT LOCAL LAW NO. 2 – ENVIRONMENT

Amendment No. 5

The Council pursuant to the provisions of Section 119(2) of the Local Government Act 1989, proposes to amend Local Law No. 2. The general purpose of the amendment is to alter Standard 9 of the Local Law relating to “Temporary Dwellings” and stipulating that a permit cannot be issued allowing such a dwelling to be erected, installed or occupied on land 5 acres and under.

A “Temporary Dwelling” is defined as a building, relocatable structure or a caravan used for residential purposes prior to and during construction of a detached dwelling.

Persons affected by the making of the amendment to Local Law No. 2 are entitled to make submissions pursuant to the provisions of Section 223 of the Local Government Act 1989.

Written submissions must be received by 4.00 p.m. on Thursday 6 September, 2001 and should indicate whether the person wishes to be heard in support of their submission.

A copy of the Local Law with the proposed amendment is available for inspection at the Municipal Offices, 113 High Street, Broadford.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A311 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Victoria Racing Club. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Victoria Racing Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating up, to a maximum of 744 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2001 Melbourne Cup Carnival.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Victoria Racing Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 744 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2001 Melbourne Cup Carnival.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- It is the older members of the Club who are more likely to require guaranteed seating for their comfort, and in some cases for their health and safety, in the crowded conditions which prevail during the Melbourne Cup Carnival.
- There are a large number of members of the Victoria Racing Club, far more than the number of seats can accommodate. The opportunity to purchase the reserved seats is to be offered on a preferential basis to members aged 60 years and older and will be made available to younger Club members only if the 744 available reserved seats are not all purchased by Club members who are 60 years and older.
- The applicant was granted a previous exemption which expired on 31 December 2000.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Victoria Racing Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 744 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2001 Melbourne Cup Carnival.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 31 December 2001.

Dear Stephen

Application Nos: A90762 – A90764

On 7 August 2001 NECA, on behalf of the Ministers of the NEM jurisdictions, notified the Commission of amendments to the applications for authorisation (Nos A90762, A90763 and A90764) of amendments to the National Electricity Code. The proposed amendments allow for an extension of the Chapter 9 ancillary service arrangements, until the earlier of the commencement of the new ancillary service arrangements or 31 March 2002. As part of the application the Ministers requested the Commission grant interim authorisation to the amended applications.

Pursuant to subsection 91(2) of the Act, the Commission now revokes the interim authorisation dated 30 November 2000 and hereby grants interim authorisation for the applications A90762, A90763 and A90764.

These interim authorisations take effect from Wednesday 8 August 2001 and will lapse when the Commission reaches a final determination in regard to each application. Please note that under subsection 91(2) of the Act, the Commission may revoke an interim authorisation at any time.

If you have any queries about any issue raised in this letter, please contact or Kaye Johnston on (02) 6243 1258.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Avoid:

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
