EXEMPTION

Application No. A294/2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Theodora Tzimas for exemption from Section 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide beauty therapy services to women only and to advertise those services.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon reading submissions from Ms Tzimas and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 27 September 2002, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide beauty therapy services to women only and to advertise those services.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Section 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to provide beauty therapy services to women only and to advertise those services.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 October 2005.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A315 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Rosamond Special School (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male teacher.

UPON READING the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male teacher.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted :

- The school is currently staffed by 16 teachers of whom 14 are female. One of the two male teachers is on a twelve month contract which concludes at the end of 2002. The second has indicated his intention to retire in February 2003. So it is likely there will then be no male teachers or staff.
- The students are aged from 5-18 years. All have a clinically diagnosed intellectual disability. Sixty-five percent are boys. Students of all ages frequently need assistance with toileting and/or personal hygiene. It is not appropriate for young male adults to be assisted by a female.
- Many students display a range of challenging behaviours and the strength and support of a male teacher is invaluable and it is important that in preparing students for a rich and full life that they interact with both male and female teachers.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male teacher.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 3 October 2005.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A327 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the Victoria Racing Club (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Victoria Racing Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 744 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2002 Melbourne Cup Carnival, before that opportunity is provided to other members.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Victoria Racing Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 744 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2002 Melbourne Cup Carnival, before that opportunity is provided to other members.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- It is the older members of the Club who are more likely to require guaranteed seating for their comfort, and in some cases for their health and safety, in the crowded conditions which prevail during the Melbourne Cup Carnival.
- There are a large number of members of the Victoria Racing Club, far more than the number of seats can accommodate. The opportunity to purchase the reserved seats is to be offered on a preferential basis to members aged 60 years and older and will be made available to younger Club members only if the 744 available reserved seats are not all purchased by Club members who are 60 years and older.
- The applicant was granted a previous exemption which expired on 31 December 2001. In 2001 all of the reserved seats on offer were purchased by members aged 60 years and over. The comments received by the Club were to the effect that the availability of reserved seating for senior members of the Club was welcomed. The Club did not receive any comments to the effect that the seating should not be made available on a preferred basis to members 60 years of age and older.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to grant to members of the Victoria Racing Club, aged 60 years and older, the preferential opportunity to purchase reserved seating, up to a maximum of 744 seats, in the Members Grandstand at Flemington Racecourse for the 2002 Melbourne Cup Carnival, before that opportunity is provided to other members.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 31 December 2002.

The variations update the form and content of the gas retail licences in line with the statutory requirements of the Gas Industry Act 2001, the Essential Services Commission Act 2001 and the requirements associated with the implementation of Full Retail Competition. The variations also align the form of the gas retail licences with the revised licences of electricity retailers, where it is efficient and sensible to do so.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
