EXEMPTION

Application No. A90/2005

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by ParaQuad Victoria (the applicant). The application is for renewal of exemption A102 of 2002 due to expire on 17 April 2005 to enable the applicant to continue to advertise for and employ male or female attendant carers in the age range as requested by their clients.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Peter Prendergast, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to renew the exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to continue to advertise for and employ male or female attendant carers in the age range as requested by their clients.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- ParaQuad is a community-based organisation employing more than 700 attendant care staff whose role is to undertake personal care activities in clients' homes. Clients are of different age ranges, genders and ethnic backgrounds throughout Victoria.
- The age range of their clients is from early teenage years to those 90 years of age plus.
- The relationship which develops between a carer and client often moves beyond the workplace (ie the client's home).
- Many clients are looking for carers to assist them in all aspects of daily living such as toileting and showering. They also require assistance from a carer in work and in social settings. As such, a strong rapport can develop which prompts many clients to seek a carer who can become an age-related peer which is pertinent to both young and aged clients who often make requests for a carer within a particular age range.
- Many clients also require gender specific carers based on the very personal nature of attendant care. The applicant respects the right of the client to select an individual with whom they feel comfortable.

The Tribunal hereby renews the exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to continue to advertise for and employ male or female attendant carers in the age range as requested by their clients.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 31 March 2008.

Essential Services Commission Act 2001

PUBLIC NOTICE

On 9 December 2004 Toll WesternPort applied to the Commission for the pass-through of security costs associated with new security compliance obligations under Commonwealth legislation. The Commission has considered this application as an amendment of the existing Price Determination for the Port of Hastings.

On 23 March 2005 the Commission determined that the additional costs associated with these new security obligations may be recovered by Toll WesternPort through a 1.9% increase in each prescribed price that was previously approved by letter on 2 June 2004. Toll WesternPort may apply this increase at any time after the date that the determination takes effect.

The amendments to the Price Determination will take effect from the date of publication and expire on 30 June 2005 (being the date that the existing Price Determination for the Port of Hastings expires).

The Commission's determination and other related information is available on the Commission's website: www.esc.vic.gov.au. Queries may be directed to Mr Michael Cunningham, Manager, Ports & Grain Handling on (03) 9651 0247.

NURSES BOARD OF VICTORIA

Re: Roderick McNeil Jackson
Identification Number 136956
Registered in Division 1

Following a formal hearing into the professional conduct of Roderick McNeil Jackson, a Panel appointed by the Nurses Board of Victoria found on 22 March 2005, that the nurse has engaged in unprofessional conduct of a serious nature.

The Panel determined that:

1. Mr Jackson's registration as a nurse in division be suspended for twelve months in relation to the finding for conduct. The suspension will run concurrently with a twelve month suspension in relation to Mr Jackson's ability to practise.

2. Upon the lapse of the twelve months, Mr Jackson's registration may be reinstated upon the provision of a satisfactory report from a psychiatrist outlining his ability to practise.
3. Upon the reinstatement of his registration, Mr Jackson's registration will be subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) Mr Jackson must work under the direct supervision of another division 1 nurse for twelve months;
  - (b) Mr Jackson provide the Board with professional reports from his employer at the following intervals: three, six, nine, twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months following his return to practice; and
  - (c) Mr Jackson must provide the Board with satisfactory reports from his psychiatrist at three, six, nine, twelve, eighteen and twenty-four months following his return to practice.
  - (d) Within twenty-eight days of the suspension being lifted, Mr Jackson must provide the Board with the name of his treating psychiatrist, to be approved by the Board.
