EXEMPTION

Application No. A237/2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Southbound Australia. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide a traineeship for an Indigenous Applicant (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The World Indigenous Peoples Conference: Education (WIPC:E) has undertaken to provide meaningful employment and training opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders people interested in the travel industry. Fundamental principles of this event are the promotion of educational and economic development for Indigenous communities through employment across a variety of industries.
- Southbound Australia is committed to engaging an Indigenous staff member for the duration of the contract with the association. The main purpose of the traineeship will be to provide the successful applicant with skills to enable them to compete equally for further opportunities within the travel industry.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 August 2010.

Dated 21 August 2007.

HER HONOUR JUDGE HARBISON
Vice President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A242 of 2007

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Morodara Pty Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate all male venues at The Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford and to advertise in connection with those purposes.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application by Brett Lasham, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 42, 49, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate an all-male venue at The Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford and to advertise in connection with those purposes.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The venue provides for the male homosexual patrons a safe environment where male sexual health issues are emphasised and where patrons can relax, socialise and pursue relationships without inhibition or fear of violence or discrimination.
- The Tribunal previously granted exemptions in 1998, 2001 and 2004 to the applicant in respect of this venue, and the circumstances relevant then remain relevant to the exemption currently sought. Those previous exemptions also related to Club 80, a venue operated by Fourth Elf Pty Ltd. That venue has now been sold and this exemption applies only to the Laird Hotel.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 13, 42, 49, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate an all male venue at The Laird Hotel, 149 Gipps Street, Abbotsford and to advertise in connection with those purposes.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 29 August 2010.
