EXEMPTION

Application No A188/2009

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Peninsula Health (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male program worker in the MEN's Behaviour Change Program.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Bernadette Davies, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male program worker in the MEN's Behaviour Change Program.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the program worker will be required to communicate with male persons who have been referred by Victoria Police for violence against women;
- the Government funded 'No To Violence' guidelines acknowledge the need for gender sensitivity and matching in order to engage the reported male in initial discussion around his purported behaviour;
- the current group of facilitators are all female and a male is required to balance the gender within the group facilitation component of the program.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male program worker in the MEN's Behaviour Change Program.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 19 August 2012.
