The Amendment applies to land in Geelong West to which Schedule 1 to the Design and Development Overlay currently applies, together with some additional land to which the Heritage Overlay applies.

The land affected by the Amendment consists of 7 individual heritage places, together with all land within the Ballinasloe, Great Western Road, Milton, Pineville and Waterloo Heritage Areas

- adding five (5) local planning policies to the Local Planning Policy Framework to address the Ballinasloe, Great Western Road, Milton, Pineville and Waterloo heritage areas in Ashby. These policies will be applied to each development application within the precinct and provide a clear framework for the consideration of permit applications and the type of development that meets Council's expectations for the area;
- amending the cultural heritage policy to reflect the addition of five additional local planning policies;
- amending the existing listing in the schedule to the Heritage Overlay for the Fire Station, 95 Autumn Street, Geelong West, HO620, to allow for prohibited uses to be permitted; and
- deleting Schedule 1 to the Design and Development Overlay (DDO1) from all land to which it currently applies.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A229/2010

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Corrections Victoria – Department of Justice. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ only Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons to fill existing Aboriginal Wellbeing Officer roles as they become vacant (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, including the affidavit of Robert J. Hastings, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers are employed in accordance with Recommendation 174 of the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody. That Recommendation has been incorporated into the Victorian Aboriginal Justice Agreement, which is administered by the Department of Justice.
- The role of Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers is to liaise with prison management and Aboriginal organisations; provide education and training advice; and assist Aboriginal prisoners with any problems they might experience inside the facility. Aboriginal Wellbeing Officers deliver services to Aboriginal prisoners across the state. It is appropriate for social and cultural reasons for the holder of these positions to be Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander persons.
- Previous exemptions have been granted to the applicant (AA241/2001, A324/2004 and A259/2007) and the circumstances relevant to those exemptions remain relevant to this exemption application.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 August 2013.
