EXEMPTION

Application No. A58/2011

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by the Central Gippsland Health Service (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people to fill five Allied Health Assistant Traineeship positions (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Denise McInnes, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is the major provider of health, community and residential aged care services in the Wellington Shire. It serves an immediate population of 42,000 and also works with people in the wider East Gippsland area through its acute specialist services. The health services are provided in a range of settings, including acute hospital settings, residential aged care, community centres and home based care.
- The Allied Health Assistant Trainee role will include a combination of formal and informal training with the goal of the Trainee qualifying as an Allied Health Assistant. The formal training component is the Certificate IV Allied Health Assistance and that is completed over 18 months. The Trainee will work with other members of the Allied Health Team to provide the applicant's therapeutic and program related support in delivering individual, group and home based therapy services across the region.
- An aspect of the Trainee role is to support and assist the applicant to take affirmative action with regard to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander patients. Further, it is expected that the Trainee will advocate and support service delivery needs as directed. Cultural knowledge and experience on the part of the Trainee will assist in engaging with and undertaking this task effectively for those Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander patients. It is noted that the 2006 ABS Census showed that 1.07% of the Wellington Shire population identified as being Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.
- The applicant has been funded by the Commonwealth Government for the five traineeships under the Closing the Gap strategy which seeks to address disadvantage experienced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. The Traineeships will provide a career pathway for Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander health workers.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of a non-Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person wishing to apply for the Allied Health Traineeship position. I am satisfied that the exemption is a measure taken for the purpose of assisting or advancing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who are disadvantaged and so it does not amount to discrimination under the Charter. In any event, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 April 2014.

Notice of Approval of Amendment
Amendment C128 Part 2

The Minister for Planning has approved Amendment C128 Part 2 to the Greater Bendigo Planning Scheme.

The Amendment comes into operation on the date this notice is published in the Government Gazette.

The land affected by the Amendment applies to land throughout the municipality capable of subdivision and subject to Council's 'Infrastructure Design Guidelines, October 2007'. The Amendment also applies to land in Maiden Gully covered by the 'Maiden Gully Structure Plan, October 1996', and land within the Bendigo Urban Growth Boundary, particularly in the vicinity of Bendigo Creek as assessed in the 'Cultural Heritage Report, May 2009'.

Further land affected by the Amendment varies over several zones and overlays.

The Amendment includes the 'Infrastructure Design Guidelines, October 2007' as a Reference Document in the Greater Bendigo Planning Scheme, deletes the 'Maiden Gully Structure Plan, October 1996' as an Incorporated Plan (IPO2), but includes it as a Reference Document and adds a Design and Development Overlay (DDO10) to include the minimum subdivision lot sizes as previously specified in the precincts of the Structure Plan.

The Amendment also corrects various zone and overlay anomalies and updates the Planning Scheme so that it is clearer, more precise and efficient.

A copy of the Amendment can be inspected, free of charge, at the Department of Planning and Community Development website at www.dpcd.vic.gov.au/planning/publicinspection and free of charge, during office hours, at the offices of the Greater Bendigo City Council, Planning Department, Hopetoun Mill building, 15 Hopetoun Street, Bendigo 3550.
