EXEMPTION

Application No. A323/2011

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Wheelers Hill Secondary College (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only a male in the role of integration aide to assist a male student who will attend the applicant school in 2012 (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Marie Ghirardello, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A young male student who requires support and assistance, including with toileting and changing, is enrolling in the applicant school in 2012. The applicant believes that it would be in the interests of that student and other male students for the integration aid to be male given that the aide will be required to enter the males' toilets.

- Arguable this conduct may fall within the exception contained in section 26 of the Act, however the application indicates that assisting the student in the male toilets is not the main responsibility of the aide. The vast majority of the aide's time will be spent assisting the student in the classroom and the school grounds. In those circumstances, the exception contained in section 26 may not apply and it is preferable to grant the exemption to ensure that the needs of the student are met without potentially breaching the Act. No current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct. In the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of females persons who would wish to be employed in the integration aide role. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 23 November 2016.
