Notice of Preparation of Amendment

Amendment C52

Authorisation AO2690

The Rural City of Wangaratta Council has prepared Amendment C52 to the Wangaratta Planning Scheme.

In accordance with section 8A(3) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, the Minister for Planning authorised the Rural City of Wangaratta Council as planning authority to prepare the Amendment.

The Amendment applies to all flood affected land currently covered by the Land Subject to Inundation Overlay (LSIO) and/or the Floodway Overlay (FO) within the Municipality of Wangaratta. The Amendment also affects land within the Ovens River rural floodplain area.

The Amendment also includes reference to the recommendations and findings of the 'Flood Study and Preparation of a Floodplain Management Plan for the Ovens Floodplain between Whorouly and Wangaratta Report July 2003' (Ovens Floodplain Management Report) in Clause 21.10 and includes the Ovens

INTERIM EXEMPTION

Application No. H142/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Peel Hotel Pty Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In this exemption, 'exempt conduct' means –

- to refuse or restrict entry to the Peel Hotel Pty Ltd at 113 Wellington Street, Collingwood, to people where the applicant (through its employee or agent) believes on reasonable grounds that to allow entry or unrestricted entry would adversely affect the safety or comfort of the venue for its homosexual male patrons, or the nature of that venue as a venue primarily for homosexual male patrons;
- to explain the nature of the venue to prospective patrons wishing to enter it and to permit them to choose whether or not to enter; and
- to advertise those matters.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Thomas Joseph McFeely and having had regard to Reasons for Decision dated 8 December 2010 regarding an earlier exemption which expired on 15 December 2013, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption from sections 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct until the application is finally heard and determined.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Peel Hotel is a late night licensed venue which specifically targets the gay market. Its aim is to serve the gay community by offering a consistent and safe venue. The Peel Hotel has operated in this way since December 1988 and currently provides services to almost 1,000 gay male patrons each week.
- Previous exemptions were granted to the applicant in similar terms in 2007 (A99/2007) and 2010 (A269/2010). I am not currently satisfied that an exception applies to the exempt conduct. Accordingly, in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of patrons who wish to attend the Peel Hotel but who are refused entry or whose right to privacy is interfered with. I am satisfied that for the purposes of this interim exemption, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 15 April 2014.
