GOVERNMENT AND OUTER BUDGET SECTOR AGENCIES NOTICES

MOUNT ALEXANDER SHIRE COUNCIL

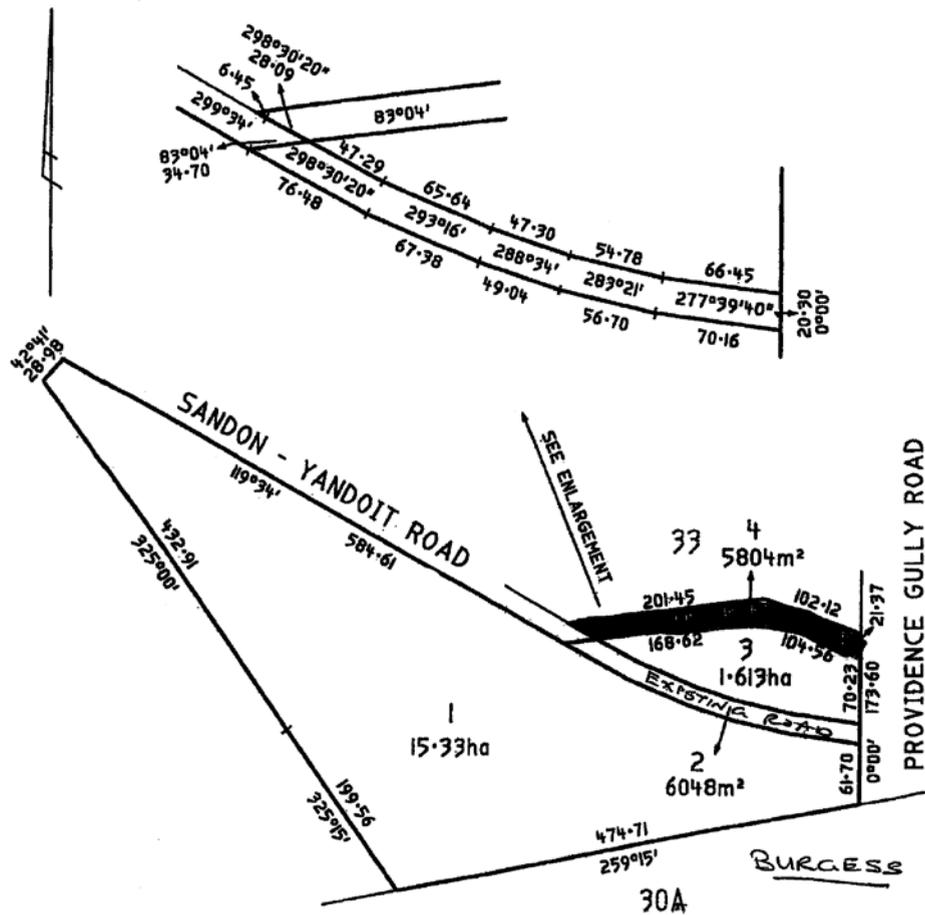

Road Deviation

Acting pursuant to section 207B(2A) Clause 2 of Schedule 10 of the Local Government Act 1989 (the Act), the Mount Alexander Shire Council hereby gives notice that, as from the date of publication in the Government Gazette, Council shall deviate a section of the Sandon–Yandoit Road, at Sandon to the east and west of Providence Gully Road, being Lots 4 and 5 on the two plans below.

Under clause 2(2) of Schedule 10 of the Act, consent was obtained on 23 October 2013 from the Minister for Environment and Climate Change, as the Responsible Minister administering the Land Act 1958 (under delegated authority), to the proposed deviation and land exchange as shown on the plan below.

The road reserve is to be altered on title to accord with the physical occupation and location of the existing constructed road. The land in the existing road reserve (Lots 2 and 7) is proposed to be transferred to the adjoining owners (Luella Ann Burgess and David John Burgess, and Ada Mary Saligari and Richard Joseph Saligari) in exchange for the land upon which the road is actually constructed (Lots 4 and 5).

Council now gives effect under Schedule 10, Clause 2(3) of the Act to the road deviation in accordance with the plans below.

EXEMPTION

Application No. H2/2014

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Women's Housing Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ only women within the applicant organisation (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Judith Isabel Line, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant operates four programs: the Justice Pathways Program which provides services to women exiting prison; a Transitional Housing Management Program which provides housing for women and children escaping family violence and other homeless women; a Housing Information and Referral Program which provides information, referral and rent assistance to homeless women and their children; a Social Housing Program which provides long-term community housing and rooming house accommodation to women-headed households; and a Rooming House program which accommodates women and men. The applicant is funded by the Victorian Office of Housing as the only statewide specialist transitional housing manager catering to women only.
- The applicant considers it inappropriate for male workers to be employed in its women-only programs. In particular, it would be inappropriate for women escaping family violence and assault to deal with male workers. Other women assisted by the applicant, including women exiting prison, single mothers and women with disabilities have often experienced violence and sexual assault by males. The applicant believes that it is more appropriate for its employees who are working with these women to also be women to avoid causing further distress or triggering traumatic reactions.

- Previous exemptions to employ women only have been granted (A304/2007 and A290/2010). The last granted exemption was in respect of the same conduct and expired on 27 October 2013.
- I am satisfied on the material before me that, where services provided by the applicant are for the benefit of women (and their accompanying children) those services fall within the meaning of a special needs service as provided for in section 88 of the Act. I am also satisfied that, where staff are dealing with women seeking advice relating to family violence and related matters, the evidence would support a finding that the exception contained in section 28 of the Act would apply as those services are likely to be most effectively provided by other women. However, to the extent that employees also work with men from time to time and undertake administrative roles, I am not satisfied that the material before me proves that the latter category of services can be provided most effectively by women only. Where I am not satisfied that an exception applies to the whole of the exempt conduct but accept that it is preferable that vulnerable women who have suffered family and similar violence receive services from women only, it is appropriate that an exemption be granted. The granting of the exemption does not prohibit the applicant from employing men as it sees appropriate.
- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men who would wish to be employed by the applicant from time to time. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 26 February 2019.

Application No. H106/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Shepparton Park Bowls Club Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise and operate two women-only lawn bowls tournaments, the Invitation Triples and the Medley Fours, and advertise those matters (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Moira Smith, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.
- The triples tournament is a prestige event in the district and has been held for approximately 25 years. The medley fours has been a feature event for a total of 26 years. These tournaments set a standard for similar events and help keep the profile of the sport of bowls in the public eye.
- The tournaments benefit the applicant financially as the rinks are filled to capacity each year.
- There are equivalent men-only tournaments. Male members of the applicant have shown no interest in participating in these events. In competitive pennant, both men and women are represented. Single gender championships are held for club champions. The applicant has received no complaints regarding women-only events or otherwise about its arrangements as to gender.

- I am not satisfied that one of the exceptions contained in the Act applies to the conduct and there is no current exemption which applies to the exempt conduct. In the absence of an exemption, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of men who would wish to play in the two tournaments. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 26 February 2019.

Application No. H137/2013

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by the Werribee Bowls Club (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to organise and operate a men-only lawn bowls tournament, the Italy/Australia Day, and advertise these matters (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavits of Colin Thompson, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 44, 71, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- A copy of the application was sent by the Tribunal to the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission (the Commission). The Commission did not seek leave to intervene in the proceeding.
- The applicant has been operating the Italy/Australia Day (the tournament) for 38 years. It was established by applicant members as friendly rivalry among the Australian and Italian bowling members. Invitations to the day are extended to friends across the state. The day is as much a celebration of cultures as it is a game of bowls.
- The costs associated with the tournament were covered by an original founder and sponsor and his family continues that sponsorship and wish the tournament to remain as a men-only event. The tournament generates approximately $3,000 which represents around 25% of the applicant's annual sponsorship income.
- The applicant runs 12 tournaments per year: this tournament is men only, two others are women only and the remainder are mixed. The applicant has received no complaints regarding men-only events or otherwise about its arrangements as to gender.
- No exception or current exemption already applies to the exempt conduct and in the absence of an exemption the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who would wish to play in the tournament.
