Proposed Meeting Procedure Local Law

Notice is hereby given that the Cardinia Shire Council proposes to make a new Meeting Procedure Local Law to replace the current Meeting Procedure Local Law that ceases to operate in August this year.

The purposes and general purport of the Local Law are to:

- regulate the proceedings at meetings of the Council and special and advisory committees of the Council;
- set out a procedure for electing the Mayor and Deputy Mayor; and
- regulate the use of the common seal as required by section 5(3)(c) of the Local Government Act 1989.

Copies of the proposed Local Law can be obtained from the Cardinia Shire Council Offices, Henty Way, Pakenham, or by contacting Customer Service on 1300 787 624. The documents also appear on Council's website at www.cardinia.vic.gov.au

Any person affected by the proposed Local Law may make a written submission in accordance with the provisions of section 223 of the Local Government Act 1989. Submissions should be lodged within 28 days of the publication of this notice and should be forwarded to PO Box 7, Pakenham 3810.

Persons making a submission should state whether they wish to be heard in support of their submission. Any person who has made a written submission and requested to be heard will be given the opportunity to address a meeting of the Council or Committee appointed for the purpose and will be advised of the time and place for that meeting.

MELBOURNE CITY COUNCIL

Road Discontinuance

Pursuant to section 206(1) and Clause 3 of Schedule 10 of the Local Government Act 1989, the Melbourne City Council (Council) declares the portion of road being part of Guests Lane, Melbourne, known as Road R3 on PS707584E, discontinued. The Council intends to sell the resulting land to the adjoining land owner.

MELBOURNE CITY COUNCIL

Notice of Amendment of an Incorporated Document

Notice is given pursuant to section 112(2) of the Local Government Act 1989 that on 29 April 2014 the Melbourne City Council resolved to amend its Meeting Procedures Code (Code) to incorporate a process for receiving written submissions on agenda items listed for consideration at Council and Future Melbourne Committee meetings.

The Code is incorporated by reference into the Council's Conduct of Meetings Local Law 2010.

A hard copy of the Code can be obtained from the Front Desk, Melbourne Town Hall Administration Building, 120 Swanston Street, Melbourne, between 7.30 am and 5.00 pm, Monday to Friday, excepting public holidays. Alternatively you can view a copy online at www.melbourne.vic.gov.au

CARDINIA PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Preparation of Amendment
Amendment C197

The Cardinia Shire Council has prepared Amendment C197 to the Cardinia Planning Scheme.

The land affected by the Amendment is Lot 1 PS301568Q No. 322 Brown Road, Officer.

The Amendment proposes to introduce a site specific control at Clause 52.03 and associated incorporated document (Site Specific Control – Lot 1 PS301568Q No. 322 Brown Road, Officer. February 2014) at Clause 81.01 to allow the use of a second dwelling on the land at 322 Brown Road, Officer, to accommodate people away from their normal place of residence as part of a respite service.

You may inspect the Amendment, any documents that support the Amendment and the explanatory report about the Amendment, free of charge, at the following locations: during office hours, at the office of the planning authority, Cardinia Shire Council, Henty Way, Pakenham; and at the Department of Transport, Planning and Local Infrastructure website, www.dpdc.vic.gov.au/planning/publicinspection

Any person who may be affected by the Amendment may make a submission to the planning authority. Submissions must be made in writing giving the submitter's name and contact address, clearly stating the grounds on which the Amendment is supported or opposed and indicating what changes (if any) the submitter wishes to make.

Name and contact details of submitters are required for Council to consider submissions and to notify such persons of the opportunity to attend Council meetings and any public hearing held to consider submissions. In accordance with the Planning and Environment Act 1987, Council must make available for inspection a copy of any submissions made.

The closing date for submissions is 16 June 2014. A submission must be sent to the Cardinia Shire Council, PO Box 7, Pakenham 3810, or mail@cardinia.vic.gov.au

MORELAND PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Preparation of Amendment

Amendment C123

Authorisation A02355

The Moreland City Council has prepared Amendment C123 to the Moreland Planning Scheme.

In accordance with section 8A(3) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, the Minister for Planning authorised the Moreland City Council as planning authority to prepare the Amendment.

The Amendment applies to all land within the Coburg Principal Activity Centre (with the exception of some land within a Public Use Zone, Public Park and Recreation Zone or Road Zone), the boundary of which is shown in the planning scheme map of the Activity Centre Zone which forms part of the Amendment documentation.

The Amendment proposes to apply the Activity Centre Zone and Schedule 1 to that zone to implement the land use and built form directions from the 'Central Coburg 2020 Structure Plan (2006)' and 'Colours of Coburg Place Framework and Strategies (2010)', the community framework of 'The Coburg Initiative', and the Pentridge precinct masterplans. The Amendment consolidates the various planning zones and overlays that currently apply to the Coburg Principal Activity Centre and also introduces new provisions.

At its meeting on 11 December 2013, Council resolved to request that the Minister for Planning appoint an independent Planning Panel to consider the Amendment and submissions. Council also resolved to refer a modified Activity Centre Zone (ACZ), Schedule 1 to the independent Panel for its consideration. The changes to the modified ACZ, Schedule 1 have been made in response to the submissions received during the 2013 exhibition of the Amendment.

Description of modified ACZ Schedule 1

As part of its presentation to the independent Panel, Council will submit that the Activity Centre Zone – Schedule 1 that was originally exhibited as part of the Amendment should be revised to:

- extend the size of the Town Square by a minimum of 25% into sub-precincts 1.2 or 1.11;
- lower the maximum height of buildings in Precinct 1 and more specifically, in sub-precincts 1.1, 1.5, 1.9, 1.10, 1.14 and 1.15 from the exhibited 36 metres (10 storeys) to 28.8 metres (8 storeys);
- lower the maximum height of buildings in Precinct 2 and more specifically, in sub-precincts 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.4, 2.5 and 2.6 from the exhibited 36 metres (10 storeys) to 21.6 metres (6 storeys), and in sub-precinct 2.7 from the exhibited 21.6 metres (6 storeys) to 14.4 metres (4 storeys);
- lower the height of buildings in Precinct 4 and more specifically, in sub-precinct 4.1 from the exhibited 36 metres (10 storeys) to 21.6 metres (6 storeys); and
- reinstate notice and review rights for applications for use and development in sub-precincts 1.6, 1.7, 1.8, 4.1, 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 4.8, 4.9, 4.10 and 4.11 and Precincts 2, 6, 7, and 8.

The reference to the term 'storeys' is also proposed to be removed from Schedule 1, with maximum building heights described in metres only.

Any person who may be affected by the Amendment and the changes proposed by Council to the Amendment may make a submission to the planning authority. All submissions will be collated and referred to the independent Planning Panel for assessment together with all other submissions previously received on Amendment C123.

If you have already lodged a submission with Council and do not wish to make any further comments, your earlier submission will still be referred to the Panel.

To review the original Amendment and the changes as proposed by Council online please follow the link: <http://www.moreland.vic.gov.au/building-and-planning/planning-scheme-amendments/amendment-c123-coburg-activity-centre-zone.html>

You may also inspect the Amendment and the changes proposed by Council and any documents that support the Amendment and the Explanatory Report about the Amendment, free of charge, at the following locations: Moreland Civic Centre, Moreland City Council, 90 Bell Street, Coburg; Brunswick Town Hall, Moreland City Council, 233 Sydney Road, Brunswick; Glenroy Citizens Service Centre, Moreland City Council, 796N Pascoe Vale Road, Glenroy; and Coburg Library, corner of Victoria and Louisa Streets, Coburg.

A submission must be made in writing and be sent to: Moreland City Council, Strategic Planning Unit, Submission to Amendment C123, Locked Bag 10, Moreland, Victoria 3058.

The closing date for submissions is 18 June 2014.

Please be aware that all submissions to Amendments are public documents that must be made available for viewing by any person as part of the planning process.

Education and Training Reform Act 2006NOTIFICATION SUSPENDING AND IMPOSING CONDITIONS ON THE REGISTRATION OF A TEACHER

Pursuant to section 2.6.46 of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 (the Act), the Victorian Institute of Teaching (the Institute) may find a teacher has engaged in serious misconduct/serious incompetence and/or is not fit to teach and may make a determination pursuant to subsection 2.6.46(2) to suspend and impose conditions on the registration of the teacher.

On 28 April 2014, Mr Bandujeeva Muthuthanthirige (Registration No. 331511) was found not fit to teach.

On 28 April 2014, the Panel determined to suspend the registration of Mr Muthuthanthirige from 28 April 2014 to 28 October 2015 and impose the following conditions prior to reinstating his registration:

- Mr Muthuthanthirige is required to attend treatment of at least eight counselling sessions at his own expense from a registered psychologist experienced in treatment for alcohol and substance abuse who is also experienced in working with the teaching profession and has a knowledge of the professional standards of teachers.
- The counselling sessions must address the following issues:
 1. Treatment for Mr Muthuthanthirige's alcohol and substance abuse and strategies to prevent relapses in future.
 2. How Mr Muthuthanthirige will recognise personal stressors and the development of strategies to enable him as a beginning teacher to respond appropriately to stressful situations, especially if he were to teach in a school.
 3. How Mr Muthuthanthirige's conduct has harmed the professional standing of teachers and how it has breached the Victorian Institute of Teaching Code of Conduct.
 4. That Mr Muthuthanthirige is familiar with and understands the Victorian Institute of Teaching Code of Conduct and, in particular, understands the importance of personal behaviour in maintaining the reputation of teachers and the trust that the community is entitled to place in teachers.
- Provide two reports, at Mr Muthuthanthirige's own expense, clearly addressing all points outlined above to the Chief Executive Officer of the Institute, one after the first four sessions in not less than nine months from the date of the decision and the second after the second four sessions, prior to 28 October 2015. Both reports should set out the dates when counselling occurred.

Education and Training Reform Act 2006MINISTERIAL DIRECTION MD141 – SPECIAL RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION IN GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS*1. Title

This Direction may be cited as Ministerial Direction MD141 – Special Religious Instruction in Government schools.

2. Authorising provisions and commencement

(1) This Direction is made under sections 5.2.1(2)(a) and (b) and 5.2.1(3) of the Education and Training Reform Act 2006 for the purpose of sections 2.2.10 and 2.2.11 of that Act.

(2) This Direction comes into effect on 14 July 2014.

3. Purpose

The purpose of this Ministerial Direction is to:

- (a) clarify the basis upon which special religious instruction may be provided in a Government school;
- (b) establish procedures for the provision and conduct of special religious instruction in Government schools; and
- (c) establish procedures for the care and supervision of students who do not participate in a school's special religious instruction program.

4. Application

This Direction applies to all Government schools, teachers, principals and school councils.

5. Definitions

(1) In this Direction, unless the contrary intention appears, words and expressions have the same meaning as in the Act.

(2) Further to subclause (1):

accredited means persons who are accredited representatives of churches or other religious groups;

Act means the Education and Training Reform Act 2006;

approved means approved by the Minister or his or her delegate for the purpose of delivering special religious instruction in Government schools;

Department means the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development or any Department which may succeed to the functions of that Department;

Minister means the Minister for Education;

parent in relation to a child means any person who has parental responsibility for 'major long term issues' as defined in the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) or has been granted 'guardianship' for the child pursuant to the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 or other State welfare legislation;

principal means an employee within the meaning of Division 3 of Part 2.4 of the Act occupying, or for the time being performing the duties of, the position of principal of a Government school; school hours means the hours between the start and finish times of the school day;

Note: The majority of Government schools, at the time of the making of this Direction, operate during the hours of 8.30 am and 3.30 pm.

special religious instruction means instruction provided by churches and other religious groups and based on distinctive religious tenets and beliefs, provided in accordance with section 2.2.11 of the Act.

6. Scheduling special religious instruction

- (1) If a principal receives notification from an accredited and approved instructor that the instructor is available to deliver special religious instruction at the school, the principal must offer parents of children enrolled at the school the opportunity for their children to be provided with special religious instruction.
- (2) A school principal, prior to offering special religious instruction in a school, may request further information from an accredited and approved instructor who has provided notification in accordance with subclause (1), including the instructor's name, details of their accreditation and approval, the instructor's religious affiliations, an overview of the program to be taught by the instructor and any other information the principal requires in order to comply with this Direction or the Act.
- (3) If special religious instruction is offered at a school, it must be offered and provided in accordance with the Act and this Direction.
- (4) If special religious instruction is to be provided at a school, the principal must ensure that it is scheduled:
 - (a) during school hours;
 - (b) as part of the school timetable;
 - (c) as part of normal class organisation; and
 - (d) for no more than 30 minutes per week.
- (5) A principal must ensure that, during that time set aside for special religious instruction:
 - (a) all students participating in special religious instruction are adequately supervised by at least one teacher; and
 - (b) all students who are not participating in special religious instruction are adequately supervised by at least one teacher, who is not the same teacher that is supervising students in accordance with subclause (5)(a).
- (6) A principal must ensure that the supervision of students under subclause (5) meets the standard of care appropriate to the discharge of a teacher's duty of care for Government school students.
- (7) If, once a principal has offered special religious instruction at a school, the principal determines that the school does not have sufficient resources to meet the obligations set out under this clause, special religious instruction will not be offered at the school.

Example: A principal may determine that there are not sufficient teaching staff to enable adequate supervision of students during that time that special religious instruction would be provided.

Example: A principal may determine that there is no suitable learning space available in which special religious instruction may be delivered.

7. Requirement of accredited and approved instructors and volunteer checks

- (1) A principal must ensure, through consultation with the Department, that any person who is to provide special religious instruction at the school is an accredited and approved instructor.

Note: The process for accreditation of instructors is published on the Department's website.
- (2) A principal who offers special religious instruction in a school must request a copy of the instructor's formal accreditation and retain such a copy on the school's records.
- (3) A principal must ensure that each accredited and approved instructor delivering special religious instruction in a school complies with the school's volunteer and visitors to schools policies.

Note: Information about volunteer checks is published on the Department's website.

8. Program to be delivered

- (1) A principal must ensure that each accredited and approved instructor delivering special religious instruction in a school delivers a program that is:
- (a) approved by the instructor's organisation;
 - (b) available for parents to access in an online format.

9. Distribution and display of religious material

- (1) A principal must not permit material to be distributed or displayed at a school if that material has the effect of promoting any particular religious practice, denomination or sect.

Note: Section 2.2.11 provides that the Minister may give an authorisation for special religious instruction to be given on a basis other than the normal class organisation of the school having regard to the particular circumstances of a school or schools or in preparation or conduct of a pageant, special event or celebration of a festival in a school or schools.

Section 2.2.10(1) of the Act states that, apart from special religious instruction, education in Government schools must be secular and must not promote any particular religious practice, denomination or sect.

Section 2.2.10(3) of the Act states that a Government school teacher must not provide religious instruction other than the provision of general religious education in any Government school building.

general religious education for the purposes of section 2.2.10(4) means education about the major forms of religious thought and expression characteristic of Australian society and other societies in the world.

10. Supervision and monitoring of accredited and approved instructors

- (1) A principal must ensure that:
- (a) information, ideas, opinions or beliefs communicated to students; and
 - (b) written material distributed to students –
- by an accredited and approved instructor or their organisation during the course of a special religious instruction program do not contradict the school's values, curriculum, an applicable law, or Department policies or guidelines.

Note: Section 1.2.1 of the Act provides that:

Parliament has had regard to the following principles in enacting this Act –

- (1) all providers of education and training, both Government and non-Government, must ensure that their programs and teaching are delivered in a manner that supports and promotes the principles and practice of Australian democracy, including a commitment to –
 - (i) elected Government;
 - (ii) the rule of law;
 - (iii) equal rights for all before the law;
 - (iv) freedom of religion;
 - (v) freedom of speech and association;
 - (vi) the values of openness and tolerance.
- (2) A principal must ensure that an accredited and approved instructor of a special religious instruction program in the school does not:
 - (a) provide or offer to students who attend special religious instruction any enticement, reward or other benefit of a tangible nature;

Example: An enticement, reward or other benefit of a tangible nature may include gifts, sweets or stickers.
 - (b) induce or attempt to induce any student to convert to a particular religion.

- (3) A teacher who is responsible for the supervision of special religious instruction in accordance with clause 6(5) must report any concern he or she has about the delivery, provision or content of special religious instruction to the principal, as soon as it is practicable.

Example: A teacher who believes that the content of special religious instruction conflicts in some way with a Department policy must report that concern to the principal.

- (4) An accredited and approved instructor must not, in their capacity as an accredited and approved instructor, participate in any school activity except for the delivery of a special religious instruction program in accordance with this Direction and the Act.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, an accredited and approved instructor does not contravene subclause (4) if he or she participates in school activities as a parent, school council member or in any other capacity in which he or she would ordinarily be allowed to participate in school activities.

11. Attendance at special religious instruction not compulsory

- (1) Attendance at special religious instruction is not to be compulsory for any student whose parents desire that he or she not attend.
- (2) A principal who offers special religious instruction in a school must do so on the basis that special religious instruction is not compulsory for any student.
- (3) A principal who offers special religious instruction in a school must obtain written advice from all parents of students at the school regarding whether their child is to participate or not participate in special religious instruction.
- (4) In obtaining written advice from parents in accordance with subclause (3), a principal must use the form, if any, published by the Department for that purpose.

Note: At the time of making this Direction, the relevant form is available on the Department's website.

- (5) A principal must ensure that parents are provided with the following information in relation to the provision of special religious instruction in a school:
 - (a) what type of religious instruction is offered or provided at the school;
 - (b) how long it is to be delivered for each week;
 - (c) an overview of the program to be taught by the accredited and approved instructor;
 - (d) the name of the accredited and approved instructor who will deliver the special religious instruction program and his or her religious affiliations;
 - (e) how a parent may access the special religious instruction program materials online, in accordance with the requirement in clause 8(1)(b); and
 - (f) that a parent may withdraw their child from special religious instruction at any time by notifying the school in writing.
- (6) A principal must seek written advice in accordance with subclauses (3) and (4), and provide information in accordance with subclause (5), at the following times:
 - (a) if special religious instruction is to be introduced to a school that currently does not offer special religious instruction, before special religious instruction commences at the school;
 - (b) if special religious instruction in a different religion to that already offered is to be introduced at a school, before special religious instruction in the different religion commences at the school; and
 - (c) at least once per calendar year in a school that offers special religious instruction.

- (7) If a parent does not provide written advice in accordance with clauses (3) and (4) within the time frame requested by the principal or specified in the form, the principal must treat the student who is the child of that parent as if the parent had not consented to that child receiving special religious instruction.

12. Educational activities for students not attending special religious instruction

- (1) A principal must ensure that students who do not attend special religious instruction are, at the time that the special religious instruction is being provided, engaged in educationally valuable activities.

Example: For example, educationally valuable activities may include self-study, revision, reading, community service, peer mentoring, and participation in clubs.

- (2) At the time special religious instruction is being provided, a principal must ensure that students who do not attend special religious instruction are not provided with instruction in areas within the Australian Curriculum in Victoria (AusVELS) curriculum.
