NOTICE OF PREPARATION OF REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Proposed Fines Reform Regulations 2017 and Infringements Amendment Regulations 2017

Notice is given in accordance with section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994 that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared to assess the impact of the proposed Fines Reform Regulations 2017 and Infringements Amendment Regulations 2017 (the proposed regulations).

Reason for and objectives of proposed regulations

The proposed regulations are made under section 185 of the Fines Reform Act 2014 and section 168 of the Infringements Act 2006.

The proposed regulations prescribe fee settings for the service of penalty reminder notices, the registration of infringement fines with the Director, Fines Victoria, the collection of unpaid fines, and the issuing of enforcement warrants. They also prescribe the details of various notices and other documents, and a range of other matters needed to support the Fines Reform system.

The proposed regulations increase the prescribed fee for service of a penalty reminder notice under the Infringements Act 2006 from 1.62 to 1.74 fee units. New fees are proposed to be prescribed under the Fines Reform Act 2014 including a collection fee of 9.01 fee units, an enforcement warrant fee of 3.94 fee units and a registration fee of 5.21 fee units.

The objective of the proposed regulations with respect to the fees for each of the above stages of the infringements enforcement process is to set those fees at cost recovery. The prescribed fees for each service are to be indexed annually in accordance with the annual rate set by the Treasurer pursuant to the Monetary Units Act 2004.

The RIS examines the costs and benefits of the proposed regulations and possible alternatives and concludes that the proposed regulations are the most efficient method of achieving the objective.

Availability of RIS

Copies of the RIS and the proposed regulations may be obtained from:
