EXEMPTION

Application No. H344/2018

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Kaellorien Management Pty Ltd (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ males only and to provide and operate an all male venue at Club80 in Peel Street, Collingwood, and to advertise in connection with those purposes (the exempt conduct).

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Leonard Lo, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The venue provides male homosexual and bisexual patrons with a safe environment where male sexual health issues are emphasised and where patrons can relax, socialise and pursue relationships without inhibition or fear of violence or discrimination.
- The applicant prefers to employ only males, whether or not they are homosexual, as its clientele is more comfortable with and expect only males to provide services.
- Letters in support of the applicant have been provided by Thorne Harbour Health, a community controlled public health organisation formerly known as Victorian AIDS Council and from the Melbourne Sexual Health Centre. The venue has worked with Thorne Harbour Health to allow volunteers to undertake outreach work and to provide health related information. Thorne Harbour Health uses the venue as a recruitment point for its Gay Community Periodic Survey conducted on behalf of the University of NSW and the Victorian Department of Health and Human Services. Thorne Harbour also uses the venue to provide a range of supports. The Melbourne Sexual Health Centre has been involved positively with the venue since the 1980s providing health promotion strategies and a nurse who carries out sexual health testing.
- Previous exemptions have been granted in respect of the same conduct and the venue since 1998 and the circumstances relevant to those exemptions are still applicable. A previous exemption in respect of the exempt conduct expired on 1 November 2018. No exception already applies to the exempt conduct. In the absence of a further exemption, the exempt conduct would amount to prohibited discrimination.

- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this exemption limits the right to equality and in particular the right to equal and effective protection against discrimination of women who wish to attend the venue or be employed by the applicant. I am satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption from the operation of sections 16, 44, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force until 2 December 2023.
