- (a) the listed fish occur naturally in the dam or lake; or
- (b) the dam or lake was stocked in accordance with the Fisheries Act 1995 or regulations made under that Act.

10. Authority to trade in listed fish

A person may trade in listed fish provided that –

- (a) the listed fish were hatched, reared, bred or grown in accordance with an aquaculture licence issued under section 43(2) of the Fisheries Act 1995; or
- (b) the listed fish were legally obtained from outside Victoria and the person can provide documentary evidence that the listed fish were legally obtained.

[Note that, under the Fisheries Act 1995 and the Fisheries Regulations 2019, holders of a Victorian recreational fishing licence are not permitted to sell fish taken under that licence.]

11. Authority to take certain listed fish for the purpose of recreation

A person who is –

- (a) the holder of a recreational fishery licence issued under section 45(2) of the Fisheries Act 1995; or
- (b) exempt under section 47 of the Fisheries Act 1995 from the requirement to hold a recreational fishery licence; or
- (c) exempt under regulation 97(1) of the Fisheries Regulations 2019 from the requirement to hold a recreational fishing licence – may take the listed fish specified in Column 1 of the Schedule to this Order subject to the terms and conditions specified in Column 2 of that Schedule.

12. Authority to take or keep certain listed fish for the purpose of commercial bait collection

A person who is the holder of an access licence issued under section 38(2) of the Fisheries Act 1995 may take or keep listed fish as by-catch incidental to a commercial bait collection operation, subject to the terms and conditions of the access licence.

Responsible Minister:

HON JILL HENNESSY MP

Attorney-General

ANDREW ROBINSON
Acting Clerk of the Executive Council

Livestock Disease Control Act 1994
EXEMPTION ORDER UNDER SECTION 6(3A)

Order in Council

The Governor in Council under section 6(3A) of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 makes the following Order:

1. Objective

The objective of this Order is to exempt specified classes of persons from specified provisions of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 and the Livestock Disease Control Regulations 2017.

2. Authorising provision

This Order is made under section 6(3A) of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994.

3. Commencement

This Order comes into operation on 1 February 2020.

4. Revocations

- (1) The Exemption Order under section 6(3A) of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 made by the Governor in Council on 13 December 2016 and published in Government Gazette G50 on 15 December 2016 at pages 3176–3177 is revoked.
- (2) The Exemption Order under section 6(3A) of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 made by the Governor in Council on 4 September 2018 and published in Government Gazette S407 on 5 September 2018 at pages 7–8 is revoked.

5. Definitions

In this Order –

APIQ means the Australian pork industry quality assurance program, owned and managed by Australian Pork Limited;

NLIS database means the database system managed by Integrity Systems Company Limited for the purposes of the National Livestock Identification System;

PIC means a property identification code as defined in the Act;

the Act means the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994;

the Regulations means the Livestock Disease Control Regulations 2017.

6. Exemptions from section 8A of the Act

- 1) An exporter of livestock, or a person acting on behalf of an exporter of livestock, is exempt from requirements under section 8A of the Act when moving, consigning, dispatching or transporting cattle, pigs, sheep or goats directly to a location that has been allocated a PIC commencing with ‘3PT’ where livestock will be loaded onto a ship or airplane for export from Australia.
- 2) A person who moves pigs directly from one property to another is exempt from the requirements of section 8A of the Act in relation to the movement of the pigs if –
 - a. the owner of the pigs, the property from which the pigs are moved and the property to which the pigs are moved operate under and are compliant with the APIQ program; and
 - b. the ownership of the pigs will not change when the pigs are moved; and
 - c. the owner of the pigs records the details of the movement of the pigs on the NLIS database within 48 hours of the arrival of the pigs on the property to which they are moved; and

- d. the owner of the pigs keeps a record of the following for 2 years, with these records able to be retrieved by the owner within 2 hours of being requested to do so by an inspector authorised under the Act –
 - i. the number of pigs moved;
 - ii. the date of the movement;
 - iii. the PIC of the property from which the pigs were moved;
 - iv. the PIC of the property to which the pigs were moved.
- 3) A person in charge of livestock at a transit depot, holding property or assembly point (other than at a saleyard for a public auction) is exempt from requirements under section 8A of the Act in relation to the movement of cattle if –
 - a. the cattle have not been kept at the transit depot, holding property or assembly point (other than at a saleyard for a public auction) (as the case applies) for more than 7 days; and
 - b. the cattle are being dispatched directly to an abattoir for slaughter, and
 - c. the cattle have not received any treatment with any veterinary drug or chemical whilst being kept at the transit depot, holding property or assembly point.
- 4) A person in charge of livestock at a transit depot, holding property or assembly point (other than at a saleyard for a public auction) is exempt from requirements under section 8A of the Act in relation to the movement of sheep or goats if –
 - a. the sheep or goats have not been kept at the transit depot, holding property or assembly point (other than at a saleyard for a public auction) (as the case applies) for more than 7 days; and
 - b. the sheep or goats have not received any treatment with any veterinary drug or chemical whilst being kept at the transit depot, holding property or assembly point.
- 5) An owner of cattle, sheep, goats or pigs is exempt from requirements under section 8A of the Act in relation to the movement of cattle, sheep, goats or pigs to or from an agricultural show or exhibition.
- 6) A person who is a transporter of livestock and an owner of livestock is exempt from requirements under section 8A(7) of the Act in relation to any vendor declaration given by that person under section 8A(5) of the Act while acting as a transporter.

7. Other exemptions

- 1) A person who owns prescribed livestock or any livestock of a prescribed species or class is exempt from section 9B of the Act to the extent it requires the person to apply for a property identification code in relation to –
 - a. emus or ostriches if there are less than 10 birds kept on the property; or
 - b. other poultry (as defined in regulation 5 of the Regulations) if there are less than 50 birds kept on the property.
- 2) An abattoir operator is exempt from the operation of regulation 15 of the Regulations if the slaughter of the livestock is necessary to relieve the livestock from unreasonable pain or suffering.
- 3) A person is exempt from the requirements in Division 1 of Part 5 of the Regulations in relation to the following livestock –
 - a. a rangeland (feral) goat that has been captured from the wild and is dispatched or transported direct from the property on which it was captured to an abattoir; or
 - b. a goat that is of one of the following breeds: Alpine, Anglo Nubian, Australian Brown, British Alpine, Elf, Lamancha, Melaan, Nigerian Dwarf, Saanen or Toggenburg.

- 4) A person is exempt from the requirements in regulations 23 and 24 of the Regulations in respect of any sheep or goat born interstate before 1 January 2019 that is introduced into Victoria from interstate, provided –
 - a. the sheep or goat is identified by a NLIS device or NLIS ear tag in accordance with any laws relating to identification of livestock of the State or Territory from which the sheep or goat was dispatched; and
 - b. the NLIS device can be read with a reader or NLIS ear tag can be read visually; and
 - c. the sheep or goat is accompanied by a correctly completed vendor declaration.
- 5) A person is exempt from Division 2 of Part 10 of the Regulations to the extent it requires the person to record, provide or forward an electronic copy of any vendor declaration.
- 6) A person is exempt from regulation 84A of the Regulations to the extent it requires an advertisement to sell livestock to include or contain the property identification code identifying the property at which the livestock are kept, if the livestock are to be sold through a livestock agent and the advertisement contains
 - a. the name of the livestock agent; and
 - b. the street address or contact telephone number of the livestock agent.
- 7) A purchaser's agent is exempt from regulation 92 of the Regulations to the extent that it requires forwarding of the property identification code of the property to which the livestock are to be, or have been, dispatched within 2 days of the sale, if the information is forwarded within 7 days after the sale.
- 8) An owner or person in charge of a premises registered as a veterinary diagnostic laboratory is exempt from the requirement under section 16(4) of the Act to ensure compliance with the standard prescribed in regulation 59(3) of the Regulations until the laboratory is assessed by the National Association of Testing Authorities (NATA) against that standard, provided –
 - a. the laboratory has been accredited by NATA against the previous edition of the standard that was prescribed in regulation 59(3) of the Regulations immediately before 5 September 2018; and
 - b. the owner or person in charge ensures the laboratory complies with that previous edition of the standard.
