INTERIM EXEMPTION

Application No. H260/2021

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal is considering an application pursuant to section 89 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 (the Act) by Ivanhoe Grammar School (the applicant).

The application has previously been granted exemptions by the Tribunal. The most recent exemption was granted on 10 August 2016 and expired on 17 August 2021.

The current application before the Tribunal is to enable the applicant to engage in the following conduct with respect to prospective and current students:

1. advertise for prospective female students to enrol at the school;
2. for Year 7 to 12 inclusive at the Ridgeway Campus and University Campus:
 - (a) structure waiting lists on the basis of sex;
 - (b) allocate student placements and offer enrolments to students of a particular sex;
 - (c) offer scholarships and bursaries to prospective and current students on the basis of sex; and

- (d) advertise these matters,
to promote, establish and maintain a gender balance of students.
(the exempt conduct).

The Tribunal has made Directions that the applicant place a Notice of the current application in a newspaper, and on the applicant's website, and for the applicant to send the Notice to all current and prospective students and their parents, inviting submissions for or against the application, and providing information on how to attend the hearing list on 25 November 2021.

The applicant has also applied for an interim exemption to enable it to continue the conduct provided for in the exemption which expired on 17 August 2021, while the current application is considered and concluded.

The conduct covered in the recently expired exemption is different to the exempt conduct proposed in the current application.

Upon reading the material filed in support of this application, including the affidavit of Gerrard Foley, Ivanhoe Grammar School Principal, as well as the material provided in relation to the previous exemptions granted by the Tribunal in 1999, 2002 and 2016, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an interim exemption from sections 38, 44, 105, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to continue to engage in the conduct provided for in the most recent exemption, while the current application is considered and concluded.

The conduct is to enable the applicant to, in respect of the Ridgeway Campus, Ivanhoe only:

- (a) advertise to prospective female students; and
(b) offer scholarship and bursary assistance to prospective female students to assist to create gender balance at the school and to advertise that matter.
(the interim exemption conduct)

In granting this interim exemption, the Tribunal noted the material before it indicates:

- The applicant has previously been granted exemptions (A309/1999, A161/2002, A162/2002 and H65/2016). The most recent exemption expired on 17 August 2021.
- The applicant commenced in February 1915 as a boy's school catering to the needs of male students in Ivanhoe and the surrounding areas. In 1999, the school board decided to offer places for females at the Ridgeway Campus in Ivanhoe. The board determined that the number of places traditionally available to males would not be diminished but rather the numbers of female students would be built up over time to equivalent numbers of males, thereby providing a true coeducational environment. The applicant's approach is that the best preparation for life after school is experienced in a coeducational setting.
- Since 1999, the applicant has taken a range of steps to build the number of female students. However, despite those efforts, there remained a significant disparity between the numbers of males and females enrolled at the school. To assist the applicant to create a coeducational environment, the Tribunal has previously granted exemptions.
- When making decisions about exemptions, the Tribunal is required to give proper consideration to relevant human rights as set out in the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006 (Charter). Arguably, this interim exemption limits the right to equality and in particular may intrude on the student's right to be free from gender-based discrimination. The Tribunal is satisfied that, in the circumstances discussed above, the limit imposed by this interim exemption is reasonable and justified under the Charter.

The Tribunal hereby grants an interim exemption from the operation of sections 38, 44, 105, 107 and 182 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the interim exempt conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 December 2021, or when the substantive application is determined, whichever occurs first.
