Health Services Act 1988

HEALTH PURCHASING VICTORIA

Pursuant to section 134B(5) of the Health Services Act 1988 (the Act), notice is given of amendments to Health Purchasing Victoria (HPV) (also known as HealthShare Victoria (HSV)) Health Purchasing Policies (HPPs) initially gazetted on 26 June 2014, effective on 26 June 2016, with amendments incorporated on 25 May 2017.

These revised policies will be referred to as HSV Purchasing Policies (HSV PPs), and on 1 January 2023, a transition period for the HSV PPs will commence and be in effect for 12 months. The transition period will formally conclude on 1 January 2024, and Schedule 1 and 5 health services listed under the Act must comply with these amended HSV PPs by this date.

HSV has a responsibility to develop, implement and review policies and practices to ensure compliance and probity in procurement, and to support good procurement practices across the Victorian health sector.

The amendments to the HPPs contained within the HSV Purchasing Policies are intended to align to the Victorian Government Purchasing Board (VGPB) Supply Policies and to implement areas for improvement that have been identified. The amendments to the HSV Purchasing Policies 1–5 include:

- amendment of all HSV PPs to a principle-based purchasing policy approach for health services;
- fit-for-purpose application depending on size and complexity of a health service;
- clearer health service reporting requirements;
- alignment of the ‘HSV Purchasing Policy 1. Governance’ to the updated VGPB Supply Policies requirement regarding Emergency Procurement;
- updates of ‘HSV Purchasing Policy 5. Collective Agreement and Supply Chain’ to include the additional function of the logistics and supply chain services of HSV and the requirements of participating health services to only purchase HSV sourced goods;
- consistent definitions across all five policies.

These policy amendments have been approved by the HSV Board after a period of consultation with Victorian public hospitals, health services and impacted parties.

The full text of the amended policies may be viewed and accessed on the HealthShare Victoria website, <https://healthsharevic.org.au>
