Road Safety Act 1986

ORDER UNDER SECTION 96A

Variation of Rules under the Road Safety Road Rules 2017

Under section 96A of the Road Safety Act 1986, I, the Hon. Ben Carroll, Minister for Roads and Road Safety, declare that the operation of the following rules of the Road Safety Road Rules 2017 are varied as described below for the period commencing from 7 January 2022 to 7 April 2022 (inclusive).

- Rule 104(8) – Despite anything to the contrary in this rule, a driver engaged in the delivery of food items or personal hygiene products to premises where the public may purchase those items or products is permitted to pass a ‘no trucks’ sign to make that delivery at any time of the day;
- Rule 179(2A) – Despite anything to the contrary in this rule, a driver who has stopped in a loading zone because the driver is dropping off or picking up food items or personal hygiene products to or from premises where the public may purchase those items or products may stay continuously in that loading zone for the period of time required to drop off or pick up those items or products.

This declaration has effect in relation to the whole of the State of Victoria.

Dated 7 January 2022

BEN CARROLL
Minister for Roads and Road Safety
