Safety on Public Land Act 2004

DECLARATION OF PUBLIC SAFETY ZONES

I, Scott Falconer, Deputy Chief Fire Officer – Loddon Mallee, as delegate of the Secretary to the Department of Environment, Land Water and Planning, make the following declaration of public safety zones under section 4(1) of the Safety on Public Land Act 2004.

1. Definitions

In this declaration:

- (a) ‘the Act’ means the Safety on Public Land Act 2004.
- (b) ‘the declared public safety zone’ means the area declared under Clause 2 of this declaration.
- (c) ‘the Schedule’ means the Schedule to this declaration.

2. Declaration of Public Safety Zones

- (a) The areas of State Forest contained within the location coordinates in the Schedule are declared to be public safety zones and associated map.
- (b) The extent of the public safety zones is described by the minimum planimetric extent using a North South orientated rectangle that encloses the area bound by:
  - a. the south-west limit described by the first two metric coordinates (Easting and Northing); and
  - b. the north-east limit described by the next two metric coordinates (Easting and Northing).
- (c) The public safety zones are limited to all areas that contain State Forest within an area identified by the coordinates and map in the Schedule.
- (d) The coordinates in Schedule 1 are provided in Map Grid of Australia (MGA) Universal Transverse Mercator (UTM) Zone number 55. These use the Geodetic Reference System 1980 (GRS80) spheroid.

3. Purpose for which the area has been declared

The purpose for which the declared public safety zones have been declared is for the maintenance of public safety in relation to storm debris timber removal operations.

4. Period of the declaration

The period for which the declared public safety zones are declared is the period commencing from 1 January 2023 and ending on 31 March 2023 inclusive.

5. Activities prohibited

The activities that are prohibited in the declared public safety zones are:

- (a) Knowingly entering a declared public safety zone during a period when access is prohibited; and
- (b) Knowingly remaining in or being present in a declared public safety zone during a period when access is prohibited.
- (c) Unlawfully alter, obliterate, deface, remove, or destroy a notice displayed in accordance.
- (d) unlawfully break down, damage, or destroy a barrier or fence which has been erected to prohibit or restrict access to a public safety zone.
- (e) A person who is not authorised to do so must not carry out any activity in a public safety zone in contravention of a public safety zone declaration.

SPECIAL

- (f) A person who is not authorised to do so must not contravene any restriction or condition applying to a public safety zone which is specified in the public safety zone declaration.
- (g) A person who is not authorised under this Act to be in a public safety zone must not, contrary to a direction of an authorised officer under section 14 – (a) re-enter a public safety zone; or (b) attempt to re-enter a public safety zone.

6. Periods when access is prohibited

Access is prohibited to the declared public safety zone throughout the period of the declaration.

7. Exempt persons or classes of person

Pursuant to section 5(2) of the Act, the following persons or classes of person are exempt from the operation of this declaration:
