Control of Weapons Act 1990

DECLARATION OF DESIGNATED AREA UNDER SECTION 10D(1)

Planned Operation in Huntingdale Railway Station

The Assistant Commissioner, Transit and Public Safety Command, acting as a delegate of the Chief Commissioner of Police under section 10D(1) of the Control of Weapons Act 1990, declares as a designated area, Huntingdale Railway Station, bound by Houghton Road, Huntingdale Road and Railway Avenue. The area incorporates the Djerring bicycle trail and both northern and southern carparks of the railway station.

SPECIAL

This declaration will operate on 1330 hours Thursday 21 November 2024 to 0129 hours Friday 22 November 2024.

Please be advised that:

- a declaration is in force pursuant to section 10D of the Control of Weapons Act 1990;
- you and/or your vehicle is in a public place that is within a designated area;
- police officers and protective services officers on duty at a designated place (as per the Victoria Police Act 2013) are empowered to search you and anything in your possession or control, or your vehicle for weapons;
- it is an offence to obstruct or hinder a police officer or a protective services officer on duty at a designated place in the exercise of a power to stop and search a person or a vehicle.

If a police officer or protective services officer on duty within a designated place intends to conduct a limited search of you or your vehicle/things for weapons:

- a. you are requested to co-operate with that search;
- b. you may be requested to remove items of outer clothing such as headwear, scarves, jackets, etc;
- c. you may be searched using an electronic wand;
- d. you may be requested to remove items from any bags or pockets;
- e. you may be given a 'pat down' search.

Whilst within the designated area, a police officer may request that you remove any face covering if the police officer reasonably believes the face covering is being worn primarily to conceal your identity, or to protect from the effects of crowd-controlling substances. If you refuse to remove the face covering, the police officer may direct you to leave the designated area.

A police officer may also direct a person to leave a designated area if the police officer reasonably believes the person intends to engage in conduct that would constitute an offence under section 195H (affray) or 195I (violent disorder) of the Crimes Act 1958.

It is an offence to fail to comply with any direction to leave a designated area without reasonable excuse.
